YAZARLAR

A series of horizontal grey bars on the right side of the page, serving as a design element. The bars are arranged in a staggered, descending pattern from top to bottom. The top bar is the longest and features a red minus sign icon on its left side. Below it is a shorter bar with a rounded left end. This is followed by another bar of similar length to the second bar. The next bar is shorter still. The fifth bar is the shortest and contains a red dot icon on its right side. The sixth bar is slightly longer than the fifth and also contains a red dot icon on its right side. The seventh bar is longer than the sixth and contains a red dot icon on its right side. The eighth bar is longer than the seventh and contains a red dot icon on its right side. The ninth bar is the longest of this group and contains a red dot icon on its right side. The final bar at the bottom is a solid red horizontal bar.
